CITY NEWS.

Small Cylinder Hoe Printing Press for Sale.

The Democrat is printed upon a double-cylinder Hoe press; and a single-cylinder press, formerly used by us, is offered for sale.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—Pursuant to adjournment, the United States Circuit Court, Monday morning, the 22nd inst., met at 10 o'clock.

THE CASE AGAINST HUGH CURRY, of this city, charged with high misdemeanor, was continued to the 26th inst.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, Feb. 23.—Henry Dickenson, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and carrying away the property of Otto Krimm; a peace warrant was issued in the case, held on that for six months.

Chas. Smith, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, held in $100 for thirty days.

Chas. White (f. m. c.) and Jas. Dart, charged with stealing linen in the country; continued.

Martha Magill was drunk, but was let off.

Mary Smith was in the same fix; sent out for sixty days.

Casper Scholz, shooting his pistol in the street; fined $4.

Henry Kluck, shooting and killing Louis Meyer, a little boy; as it was an accident, he was discharged.

Eliza Harris, charged with stealing $90 from Mary Cress; discharged.

THE COURT OF INQUIRY.—On Monday night, Gen. Braxton finished giving his testimony before the court of inquiry in the case of Gen. Negley, and he being the last witness in the case, the court adjourned sine die.

RE-ENLISTED VETERANS.—The soldiers in the Army of the Cumberland are enlisting as fast as they can be mustered into the service, and for the past month or two not a single day has passed without numbers of re-enlisted veterans passing through the city.

ARREST OF A YOUNG THIEF.—For some time past a party of boys, between the ages of ten and fourteen, have been in the habit of stealing coal and other articles from a house near the canal bridge.

ARREST OF A DESERTER.—On yesterday one of our detectives arrested a man by the name of Jacob Judge, who is a deserter from the Thirty-second Indiana. Desertions are becoming very common, and a day does not pass that one or more are not arrested in this city.

A LEAP YEAR MASK BALL.—We announce in the amusement column a "Leap Year Mask Ball," to be given at Odd Fellows' Hall on Monday evening, the 29th inst.

Delegates to the Ohio River Improvement Convention are requested on their arrival to call at the Board of Trade rooms, on Fourth street, between Market and Jefferson, over Trippe & Granger's market store.

W. H. Ehrlich, at the corner of Third and Main streets, has received George's Lady's Book for March, which is a very interesting number. He has on hand a copy.

The court martial, of which Lieutenant Colonel Orent is president, and which is now in session in this city, is kept busy trying deserters.

We learn that a number of prisoners were brought up on the train last night from Nashville and confined in the military prison.

AN ELOPEMENT.—Of late elopements have become common occurrences, and we recently picked up a paper that does not contain the particulars of a young man and a young woman.
